

A historical painting depicting a large crowd of people, possibly a military or political gathering. In the foreground, several men are visible, some wearing armor and others in civilian or official attire. In the background, a dense forest of tall, thin spears or poles rises against a hazy sky. The overall scene suggests a significant event or a moment of historical importance.

LO QUE EL ESTADO MODERNO SE LLEVÓ

Pr. Dr. Josep Capdeferro i Pla
Universidad Pompeu Fabra

Modalidad online
Inscripción en:

<https://forms.gle/UhoiCgu61KHjFYDq6>

MIÉRCOLES
10 DE NOVIEMBRE
9:30AM

UNIVERSITAS
Miguel Hernández

Más información en
www.historiadelderecho.umh.es